DETAILED ACTION

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

- (b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.
- (e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.
- 2. Claims 1,2,7, and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Kim 6,133,911.

See the figures; abstract; and col. 3, line 45 on. Note that after the main menu is selected a sub menu is displayed at the same location which visually links the main and submenu.

3. Claims 1,2,7,8 and 13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Rowe et al. 5,623,613.

See the abstract; figures; col. 2, line 51 to col. 4, line 19; col. 5, lines 10-51; and col. 7, lines 16-44.

4. Claims 1,2,7, and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Easty et al. 6,448,987.

See the figures; abstract; col. 2, line 62 to col. 3, line 35; col. 4, lines 12-63; and col. 5, line 45 on.

- 5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:
 - (a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.
- 6. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).
- 7. Claims 1-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Ohkura et al. 5,737,029.

Ohkura et al. teaches use of a menu, submenu, orthogonal arrangement of the menu and submenu around a third display area; use in a receiver; electronic program guide; genre and subgenre, selecting submenu items in response to the selected menu item; and use of programming in the cpu to accomplish the method. See the abstract; figures; col. 1, line 50 to col. 2, line 5;col. 5, lines 38; and col. 9, line 38 on.

Application/Control Number: 09/804,002

Ohkura however discloses that a menu item can be selected that causes the submenu to obscure the picture. Col. 10, lines 1-7. Ohkura however expressly teaches that this is a disadvantage and results in a unfavorable display.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to modify Ohkura in view of this teaching and require that the display always occur outside the picture area to avoid this problem.

- 8. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Fuller 5,179,653; Carlson et al. 6,292,188; and Lane et al. 5,704,051 all are of interest in the use of a menu and submenu.
